About This School

The Bay School provides science-based education and clinical intervention services to children in grades preK thru 12 diagnosed with autism, autism spectrum disorders, and/or developmental disabilities. The instructional approach is based on the principles of applied behavior analysis. Functional skills comprise the core of the curriculum with instructional emphasis on building skills in the following developmental domains: communication, social, cognitive, adaptive behavior, motor, vocational and leisure skills. Skills are systematically taught through highly structured one-to-one and small group instruction. Families are requested to participate in their children's program and implement teaching procedures at the home. Entrance criteria include a diagnosis of an autism spectrum disorder. Exit criteria include sufficient achievement of IEP goals and objectives for successful transition as determined by the IEP team. The school provides a full day, twelve month per year education.

I. Data and Access

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located at <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district, the county, and the state. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g. Academic Performance Index [API], Adequate Yearly Progress [AYP], test data, enrollment, graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2007-08)

This section provides information about the school, its programs and its goals.

The Bay School (TBS) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, nonpublic school founded in 1998 by parents of children with autism. The Bay School provides students with autism and related developmental disabilities ages birth to twenty-two, comprehensive, extended year, educational and clinical services regardless of their race, national or ethnic origin, cultural heritage, political beliefs, age, gender, marital status or religion. Expanding the services available for children with autism spectrum disorders and developmental delays, TBS added an Early Intervention Program in 2005 for infants/children ages birth to five years old. Most recently, TBS has committed to opening a state-of-the-art prevocational/vocational training center for adolescents and young adults with autism and related developmental disabilities.

The Bay School's mission is to provide scientifically-based educational and clinical services that ensure long term social change for students with autism and related developmental disabilities. As a result, The Bay School utilizes procedures and methodologies that have peer-reviewed research supporting their effectiveness. The Bay School's education and treatment approach is based on the principles of applied behavior analysis (ABA), a methodology that applies principles of behavior to learning and is monitored by objective data measures to assess desired outcomes. Skills are systematically taught through individualized and small group teaching sessions. The defining characteristics of TBS's instructional program are the use of explicit and systematic instruction. These instructional strategies are used both in highly structured settings and in more natural settings, as a means of facilitating generalization and increasing the motivation of students with autism.

The Bay School's curriculum is scientifically-based, communication focused, developmentally appropriate, and transition oriented. The ultimate goal for each student is to develop functional, "real world" skills that will enable the student to live more independently and productively. For each student, an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) or Individualized Transition Plan (ITP) is developed annually. This plan contains an analysis of the student's primary presenting problems and constitutes an approach to remediating skill deficits and behavioral excesses. The treatment objectives included in the IEP/IFSP/ITP are generally stated in terms of Annual Goals which are broken down into specific Objectives. These quarterly objectives constitute much of the student's day-to-day programming. All objectives are criteria-based and data is collected daily until the objective is met. Progress Reports are written quarterly to coincide with objectives. The plan is developed by TBS staff most familiar with the student through formal and informal assessment tools, with input from the student's IEP/IFSP/ITP team members, and interviews with parents and caregivers. Plans are prepared and reviewed at regular intervals to ensure that each student's rights as a student and individual are protected in receiving the most effective, least restrictive treatment based on his/her specific needs.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement \(School Year 2007-08\)

This section provides information about opportunities for parents to become involved with school activities.

On an annual basis, families are asked to volunteer to serve on the school's Parent Advisory Board. The Board meets several times a year to review school policies, make recommendations, and organize school events for staff, students, and/or families. Events (e.g., dances, parent's nights, etc) are held during the school year to which families are invited. Families are notified a few weeks in advance of the events and are strongly encouraged to attend. In addition, caregiver participation days are provided, during which family members and caregivers can be a part of their student's educational programming.

IX. Student Performance

California Standards Tests

The California Standards Tests (CSTs) show how well students are doing in relation to the state content standards. The CSTs include English-language arts (ELA) and mathematics in grades 2 through 11; science in grades 5, 8, and 9 through 11; and history-social science in grades 8, and 10 through 11. Student scores are reported as performance levels.

Detailed information regarding CST results for each grade and performance level, including the percent of students not tested, can be found on the Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) Results Web page at <http://star.cde.ca.gov>.

Note: Scores are not shown when the number of students tested is 10 or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy. In no case shall any group score be reported that would deliberately or inadvertently make public the score or performance of any individual student.

The California High School Exit Examination (CAHSEE) is primarily used as a graduation requirement. However, the grade 10 results of this exam are also used to establish the percentages of students at three proficiency levels (not proficient, proficient, or advanced) in ELA and mathematics in order to compute Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) designations as required by the federal NCLB Act of 2001. Detailed information regarding CAHSEE results can be found at the CAHSEE Web site at <http://cahsee.cde.ca.gov/>. Note: Scores are not shown when the number of students tested is 10 or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy, or to protect student privacy. In no case shall any group score be reported that would deliberately or inadvertently make public the score or performance of any individual student.

X. Accountability

Academic Performance Index

The Academic Performance Index (API) is an annual measure of the academic performance and progress of schools in California. API scores range from 200 to 1,000, with a statewide target of 800. Detailed information about the API can be found at the API Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ap/>.

API Ranks – Three-Year Comparison

This table displays the school's statewide and similar schools API ranks. The statewide API rank ranges from 1 to 10. A statewide rank of 1 means that the school has an API score in the lowest 10 percent of all schools in the state, while a statewide rank of 10 means that the school has an API score in the highest 10 percent of all schools in the state. The similar schools API rank reflects how a school compares to 100 statistically matched "similar schools." A similar schools rank of 1 means that the school's academic performance is comparable to the lowest performing 10 schools of the 100 similar schools, while a similar schools rank of 10 means that the school's academic performance is better than at least 90 of the 100 similar schools.

Adequate Yearly Progress

The federal NCLB Act requires that all schools and districts meet the following Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) criteria:

- Participation rate on the state's standards-based assessments in English-language arts (ELA) and mathematics
- Percent proficient on the state's standards-based assessments in ELA and mathematics
- API as an additional indicator
- Graduation rate (for secondary schools)

Detailed information about AYP, including participation rates and percent proficient results by student group, can be found at the AYP Web page <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/ay/>.

AYP Overall and by Criteria \(School Year 2007-08\)

This table displays an indication of whether the school and the district made AYP overall and whether the school and the district met each of the AYP criteria.

Schools and districts receiving federal Title I funding enter Program Improvement (PI) if they do not make AYP for two consecutive years in the same content area (English-language arts or mathematics) or on the same indicator (API or graduation rate). After entering PI, schools and districts advance to the next level of intervention with each additional year that they do not make AYP. XI. School Completion and Postsecondary Preparation

Admission Requirements for California Public Universities

University of California

Admission requirements for the University of California (UC) follow guidelines set forth in the Master Plan, which requires that the top one-eighth of the state's high school graduates, as well as those transfer students who have successfully completed specified college work, be eligible for admission to the UC. These requirements are designed to ensure that all eligible students are adequately prepared for University-level work. For general admissions requirements please visit the University of California Web site at <http://www.universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions/general.html>.

California State University

Admission requirements for the California State University (CSU) use three factors to determine eligibility. They are specific high school courses; grades in specified courses and test scores; and graduation from high school. Some campuses have higher standards for particular majors or students who live outside the local campus area. Because of the number of students who apply, a few campuses have higher standards (supplementary admission criteria) for all applicants. Most CSU campuses utilize local admission guarantee policies for students who graduate or transfer from high schools and colleges that are historically served by a CSU campus in that region. For general admissions requirements please visit the California State University Web site at <http://www.calstate.edu/admission/>.

Dropout Rate and Graduation Rate

This table displays the school's one-year dropout rates and graduation rates for the most recent three-year period for which data is available. For comparison purposes, data are also provided at the district and state levels. Completion of High School Graduation Requirements

Students in California public schools must pass both the English-language arts and mathematics portions of the California High School Exit Examination (CAHSEE) to receive a high school diploma. For students who began the 2007-08 school year in grade 12, as evidenced by that school year's October CBEDS enrollment, this table displays by student group the percent who met all state and local graduation requirements for grade 12 completion, including having passed both portions of the CAHSEE or received a local waiver or state exemption. Detailed information about the CAHSEE can be found at the CAHSEE Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tq/hs/>. Note: "N/A" means that the student group is not numerically significant.
