

AUTISM EXPERT TO PRESENT
WORKSHOP AT
SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY
November 27, 2007 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

The Bay School's 2007 Autism Speaker series will feature Dr. Andrea Gold, presenting a talk entitled...

Teaching Independence to Individuals with Autism
Using Activity Schedules

Activity schedules are simple yet effective tools that help enable children, adolescents, and adults with autism gain more control over their lives. Dr. Gold, Director of Education at The Bay School, will discuss how parents and professionals can use activity schedules to promote self-directed and purposeful activities in the home, school, and community settings, with minimal assistance from adults.

TIME: Nov 27, 2007 10:30 am – 12:00 pm

PLACE: San Jose State University

Student Union, Umunhum Room, 3rd Fl
(for directions see other side)

REGISTRATION: All presentations are FREE.
No registration necessary!

For more information please call or visit the Web site at www.thebayschool.org

San Jose State University
Student Union
One Washington Square
San Jose, CA 95192-0201
(408) 924-6350

Parking is located at the 7th street garage

Student Union – Umunhum Room – 3rd Floor

